KATA-AGE POTETO (堅あげポテト)

<https://www.calbee.co.jp/products/detail/?p=20221101163812>

Calbee's Kataage Potato Chips are a popular Japanese snack known for their extra-crispy texture. Unlike regular chips, they are thickly sliced and slowly fried, giving them a satisfying crunch. Available in unique flavors like sea salt, soy sauce, and consomme, they offer a deliciously bold taste perfect for snacking. It is available at convenience stores and supermarkets.

JYAGA-BEE (ジャガビー)

<https://www.calbee.co.jp/jagabee/>

Jagabee by Calbee is a popular Japanese snack featuring crispy, stick-shaped potato pieces. Made from real potatoes, each stick has a texture that's both crunchy on the outside and fluffy inside, resembling the taste of freshly cooked fries. Available in classic flavors like sea salt and soy sauce, Jagabee offers a unique and satisfying snack experience that's loved for its natural potato flavor and perfect bite.

Very similar to 'jagapokkuru', a famous souvenir from Hokkaido. It is available at convenience stores and supermarkets too.

BONCHI-AGE (ぼんち揚げ)

<https://www.bonchicorp.co.jp/products/brands/bonchi-age/>

Bonti-age is a long-selling Japanese rice cracker known for its light, crispy texture and savory flavor. Made from rice, these crackers are deep-fried to create a crunchy bite and are often seasoned with soy sauce and a hint of sweetness. Bonti-age has been enjoyed for generations, combining the richness of soy sauce with the lightness of puffed rice, making it a beloved classic snack in Japan. It is available at convenience stores and supermarkets.

BLACK-THUNDER (ブラックサンダー)

https://www.yurakuseika.co.jp/lineup/product_05.html

Black Thunder is a popular Japanese chocolate bar known for its rich taste and crunchy texture. It combines crispy cocoa-flavored cookie pieces and puffed rice, all coated in chocolate, creating a satisfying and unique bite. Originally launched as an affordable treat, Black Thunder has gained a cult following for its bold flavor and satisfying crunch, making it a go-to snack in Japan. Its low price also makes it perfect for buying in bulk as a souvenir to share with friends.

Cigare (シガール)

<https://www.yokumoku.co.jp/products/1008/>

The "Cigare" by Yoku Moku is a popular Japanese confection known for its delicate, buttery flavor and crisp, light texture. Shaped like a small, elegant cigar, this thin cookie is made from high-quality ingredients, including butter, sugar, and eggs, which give it a rich, melt-in-your-mouth feel. The Cigare's outer layer is lightly baked, providing a satisfying crunch, and it's often enjoyed with tea or coffee. Yoku Moku has become renowned for this treat, and it's a favorite gift item in Japan, symbolizing a refined yet simple indulgence perfect for sharing. In Osaka, you can get it at the Hankyu Department Store at Umeda.

GOUTER de ROI (ガトーフェスタ ハラダ・グーテ・デ・ロワ)

<https://www.gateaufesta-harada.com/products/detail/r>

The Gâteau Rusk GOUTER de ROI by Gâteau Festa Harada is a premium Japanese rusk, a twice-baked bread snack, made from thin slices of French baguette coated in high-quality butter and sugar. It has a wonderfully crispy texture with a rich, buttery aroma and a light sweetness, making it a simple yet elegant treat loved by many. There are also variations coated in white or milk chocolate, as well as seasonal limited-edition flavors. Beautifully packaged, this treat is also highly popular as a gift item in Japan. I prefer the ones with white chocolate on them!

In Osaka, you can get it at the HANSHIN Department Store at Umeda (https://www.gateaufesta-harada.com/store/detail_kansai/3)

Hankyu and Hanshin department stores are located next door.
